FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER, 5, 1890.

For Congress
WILLIAM T. ELLIS,
of Daviess County.

The Senate will pass the McKinley Bill next Monday and then look out for an early adjournment of Congress.

Several years ago Maud S. lowered the trotting record to 2:08. These figures have remained untouched until last Saturday, when Roy Wilkes lowered the record to 2:04.

A rascally Indian agent named Wright has been caught stealing out in Dakota. He has been drawing rations for 7,500 Indians, and the new census report shows only 5,166 in the agency he represents.

Of the 704,743 employees of the railroads in the United States last year, 1,972 were killed and 20,000 injured in railroad accidents. These figures do not embrace passengers and other people killed and wounded.

Mc-Too Platt, of New York, has declined the Spanish Mission, made vacant by the resignation of Minister Palmer of Michigan. His reason for declining is that he will be a candidate for the Senate this winter.

Elliott and Perry counties, which cast 2,511 votes and gave Harrison a majority of 261 in 1888, failed to send in their returns before Longmoor went into office. His majority without those counties was 54,707.

The election of Congressmen comes off in Maine next Tuesday and Reed has hurried home this week to save his bacon in the First District. The Democrats are giving him a hot fight, but it is too much to hope that he will be left at home.

The L. & N. "cannon ball" was held up near Montgomery, Ala., at three o'clock Tuesday morning by a lone robber who compelled the express messenger to hand out his cash. The haul was a light one, as only $224.75 in money was realized. The robber, who is believed to be the notorious Rube Burrows, disappeared in the darkness firing his pistol.

Capt. Ellis is in accord with all reasonable demands of the Wheelers and Farmers' Alliance. He has voted uniformly for tariff reform, free coinage of silver and for every other measure looking to the relief of the farming and laboring classes. His record has been endorsed by the official organ, the State Union, published at Bowling Green and the Wheelers can do no better or more sensible thing than to endorse Capt. Ellis at their convention on October 6.

The Wheelers of the Second District can accomplish nothing by running an Independent candidate. They have made no preparations for a political campaign and have neither the leaders nor the mass to make a winning fight in the face of a Democratic majority of 3,400 in the district, which has been nearly doubled by recent gains and changes. There are 30,000 voters in the Second District and the sensible thing for the Wheelers—who are mostly Democrats—to do is to stay in their party and accomplish what they need through the great party of the people. By so doing they can keep themselves in a position to dictate the nomination of the next Governor and make themselves a power in electing the next Legislature. But the moment they undertake to cut loose from one or both parties and go off into a third party movement, they sound the death knell of their organization. There is no room for a third party and patriotic members who are fixed in their political convictions will drop the wheel whenever it gets into the hands of political tricksters and disappointed demagogues. The best and wisest men of the Alliance, such men as J. D. Clardy, J. H. Rudy, M. D. Davie, Wm. Hatchett, S. B. Erwin and others advise the Wheelers to keep out of third party movements and rely upon the Democratic party to give them the legislation they need. This is sensible, patriotic and proper. The Democratic party is composed largely of the very men who compose the Wheel and the fundamental principles of Democracy are engrafted in the Constitutions of the farmers' organizations and these organizations as bodies have been invited to take part to-morrow in the re-organization of the Democratic party in Kentucky, which is preparing for the great struggle now begun and which will end in 1892 by the triumph of the "Kentucky Idea" throughout the nation. Everywhere the people are turning to the Democratic party as the champion of their rights and it behooves the Democrats of Kentucky and especially those who have organized to make war upon monopolies, trusts and unjust discriminations, to stand to their colors and lend themselves to no scheme that has for its object the weakening or disruption of the only party that can bring relief to the poor and oppressed classes.

THE CRAFT.

Jno. C. Edwards who has been editing the Franklin Favorite for some time, has resigned.

Ben Poindester, who has qualified as Clerk of Hancock County, has sold his paper, the Lewisburg Post, to J. W. Knox M. D. and T. M. White A. B., both of whom will take a hand in editing the paper.

Mr. Z. O. King has retired from the Oldham Index, and is succeeded by Messrs. J. A. Parker and A. B. Head. Mr. Parker seems to have picked up some points about signing this name from Ben Perley Poore.

Two young people at Paducah have recently been secretly married, and the Standard discovering the fact, made it public, but provokingly omitted to give the names of the parties. A great sensation followed, which refuses to subside. The Standard, to keep things moving, has organized a guessing match, offering prizes of cigars or candy to the gentleman or lady naming the new husband and wife. We don't know the name of the lady, but the man's name is Edward O. Leigh.

—Frankfort Capital.

If Leigh is the groom the Kentuckian can name the bride, but she is not a Paducah girl.

Col. Lon B. Nall, Secretary of the Kentucky Press Association, has just completed the publication of the minutes of the meeting of the body at Winchester last June. The proceedings in detail are given with that care which characterizes the retiring as well as the present able Secretary. As an appendix, the annual address, and poem, and the various interesting papers read, follow the report of the proceedings and add largely to the value of the publication. The portraits of the new officers, the Executive Committee, and several of the ex-presidents of the Association are interspersed throughout the pamphlet with a view to beautifying it, of course.

—Frankfort Capital.

For many years Mr. B. F. Thompson, of Des Moines, Iowa, was severely afflicted with chronic diarrhoea. He says: "At times it was very severe; so much so, that I feared it would end my life. About seven years ago I chanced to procure a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It gave me prompt relief, and I believe cured me permanently. I now eat or drink without harm anything I please. I have also used it in my family with the best results. For sale by Buckner Leavell."

The Wheelers in some parts of the country have not only defied their organic law and plunged boldly into the cesspools and quagmires of politics, but over in McLean county they are undertaking to run the approaching Constitutional Convention. They have held a meeting and adopted twenty-one resolutions to be embodied in the new constitution, including opposition to railroad passes, etc. etc. The cross-road politicians and demagogues who have wormed their way into the Wheel are trying to use the organization to further their own pretensions and ambitions and are thereby greatly impairing its usefulness and influence.

Capt. W. A. Abbott, who has long been with Messrs. Percival & Hatton, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, Des Moines, Iowa, and is one of the best known and most respected business men in that city, says: "I can testify to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Having used it in my family for the past eight years, I can safely say it has no equal for either colds or croup." 50 cent bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

Henry Watterson's Star Eyed Goddess of Reform and Jim Blaine's protegee, Ressie Procity, are bosom friends.

Even in Vermont the Republicans have lost heavily in the state election, the returns from which are just coming in. Their majority on the State ticket was greatly reduced and the Democrats elected 37 members of the General Assembly, a gain of nineteen.

A Cure for Paralysis.

Frank Cornelius, of Parcell, Ind. Ter., says: "I induced Mr. Pinson, whose wife had paralysis in the face, to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. To their great surprise before the bottle had all been used she was a great deal better. Her face had been drawn to one side; but the Pain Balm relieved all pain and soreness, and the mouth assumed its natural shape." It is also a certain cure for rheumatism, lame back, sprains, swellings and lameness. 50 cents bottles for sale by Buckner Leavell.

The New Hampshire Democrats have nominated Chas. H. Amsden for Governor upon a strong platform and are going in to win. The State is very close and doubtful as shown by late figures. In 1886 the Republican candidate for Governor beat his Democrat opponent only 461 votes, when there were about 2,000 Prohibition votes polled. In 1888 Harrison's plurality was 1,533. In neither of these elections did the Republicans have a majority of the votes. This year the Democrats are confident of being able to elect their ticket by a large margin, since Democratic gains are the rule everywhere.

We've heard a great many good things of Dr. Clardy and are more fully than ever prepared to believe them all since his announcement that he is a Democrat from principle and therefore opposed to a third party movement in the interest of Republicanism. He says that relief for the farmers must come from the Democratic party, which is good enough for all Wheelers.—Henderson Journal.

HIS HONOR, JUDGE BROWN.

For the first time in many years the judicial department of the municipal government of Hopkinsville is in the hands of a judge who will enforce the law fearlessly, fairly and promptly. In this work he will have the co-operation of an efficient police force and the good effects will soon be felt. The people of Hopkinsville, who voted for M. D. Brown, irrespective of party, believing that he would enforce the law and deal out justice to the terror of evil-doers, will not be disappointed. He has begun in a way that meets the earnest approval of all good citizens. On Tuesday morning a man was arraigned who had committed an assault upon a business man at his place of business and who coolly entered a plea of guilty. A fine of $750 was promptly assessed. The prisoner walked around to the judge and after the old order of things asked "a few days" time to get up the money. He was paralyzed when the court informed him that a triangular alternative confronted him. He could pay on the spot, replevy the debt or go to the work house. He was given the escort of an officer to find some one to let him have the money, and failing in this was promptly sent to the work house. There was justice that will open the eyes of chronic offenders and put a stop to violations of the law. On the next morning a white man was arraigned for engaging in the pleasant pastime of painting the town red. After surrounding numerous cocktails he mounted his steed and played the role of a cowboy on North Main street, terrorizing the people and chasing ladies and little children into the nearest places of security. Judge Brown gave him a fatherly talk and punished him to the extent of $50, an unheard-of amount in the City Court of Hopkinsville. And yet the fine was a light one. This man's breach of the peace was a compound fracture. He violated the laws against drunkenness, fast riding, keeping the peace, and moreover endangered the lives of women and children who happened to be on the streets. He was sent to the work house and when he gets out it is safe to say that he will have a respect for the law that he never had before. Go on, Judge Brown, in the way you have started and the Kentuckian will pat you on the back when you are right and be as light as possible in your criticism when you go wrong.

And while we are on the subject we would call your attention to a double duty you are expected to perform. The records of your office will show probably hundreds of cases of fines that have never been collected. No matter if the parties fined are your best friends, issue capias and clear up this back business. You have no idea of the magnitude of it, or the profit such a course would bring to the city. These fines formerly disfranchised voters in city elections, but several years ago the list became so formidable that the Republican Representative had the charter amended and struck out the prohibitory clause. Since that time the list has been growing and nobody has been interested in seeing these fines cleared up. It now devolves upon you to put some business methods into the machine of justice and have these fines paid or worked out.

There are also a number of ordinances that have never been enforced, that should be given attention. One of these is that against vagrancy, which has existed heretofore for the benefit of tramps alone. If it applied to every suspicious looking character who is caught hanging around town with no visible means of support and let's him out the parties who are living off honest people. Instruct the police to arrest all persons who obstruct the streets or platforms, who use profane or indecent language on the streets, who mutilate fences and other private property or who suffer animals to run at large that are common nuisances. There is room for reform in all these and many other directions and if you will undertake the work you will confer lasting benefits upon the city.

Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson voluntarily retired on the 1st inst. and there is an unseemly scramble for his vacant position. Clarkson's chief claim for distinction lies in the fact that he appointed 26,675 fourth class Republican postmasters in eighteen months.

The Arkansas State election was held Monday and Gov. Eagle was re-elected by 30,000 majority. Tremendous gains were reported everywhere for the Democratic ticket. The Legislature is overwhelmingly Democratic, insuring the re-election of Senator Jones.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says:

Toledo, O., Jan. 10, 1887.

Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen: I have been in the general practice of medicine for 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions. Yours truly,

L. L. GORSUCH, M. D.,
Office, 215 Summit St.
We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally.

The first Legislature of the New Territory of Oklahoma has been organized by the Democrats, with the aid of three Republicans from Oklahoma City, who entered into an arrangement by which the Capital is to be located at their town instead of Guthrie.

A GOOD THING!

To our friends and customers: We are pleased to inform you that we now have a sure cure for chills, which is perfectly sweet. It has no taste at all. It will cure any case of Chills. Quit taking the bitter Chill Tonics, and let us sell you a bottle of Pomroy's Sweet Chill Cure! Price 50 cents. One bottle holds enough to cure two or three cases of Chills. Come and let us show it to you.

Your Friend,
BUCKNER LEAVELL,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

The Free Trade movement in the Republican party is rapidly gaining adherents, Senator Sherman being one of the latest Republicans to shift himself over to the Democratic idea advanced by Secretary Blaine. Senator Sherman will propose an amendment to the McKinley Bill providing for free trade in coal with the Dominion of Canada.

CHAMBERLAIN'S Eye and Skin Ointment.

A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetters, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scatches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. 25 and 50 cent boxes for sale by Buckner Leavell.

It Was Business With Him.

Gus de Smith—Have there been no cases of poisoning by ice-cream this season?

City Editor—Not that I know of.

Gus de Smith—Well, if you see any such cases please republish them in your local column with a few editorial comments stating that the victims died in great agony. You see I am very popular with the young ladies, and a few 'apprehensive warnings' of that kind in your paper would save me so much money during the season that I could afford to pay you an occasional five dollars in actual cash.—Texas Siftings.

Not Happily Expressed.

Opulent Father—You will excuse my saying it, but I understand you are absolutely without means of your own.

Suitor (apologetically)—That is true, sir, otherwise I would not think of asking you for your daughter.—Life.

The Leaf-Chronicle says Mr. W. F. Buckner has received the full insurance on his horses and stable recently burned—$5,800. He will re-invest in another lot of fine trotters at once.

Jailer Long filed his new bond Monday and it is the longest paper of the kind ever produced in the county. It contained the names of Geo. W. Long, Wm. R. Long, Wm. A. Long, Wm. Long and A. B. Long, Albert and Herbert Cox, brothers, of Bellevue, carried off the two gold medals shot for at the Driving Park by the Hopkinsville and Gracey gun clubs last week, mention of which was overlooked in our last issue.

The Courier-Journal of Monday contained a synopsis of the farewell sermon of Rev. John O. Rust, pastor of the McFerran Memorial church, Louisville. Mr. Rust goes to Bardonia to take the pastorate of the Baptist church there.

Dr. A. L. Butt has opened an office in this city, and will give exclusive attention to the treatment of the disorders of the Eye, Ear, Throat and Nose, and the fitting of glasses. Office with Dr. Blakey, where he may be found on Fridays and Saturdays, 9-12 m.

Democratic mass conventions have been called to meet in every voting precinct in the State to-morrow at 2 p. m. to choose county committeemen, one from each precinct. Let Christian county Democrats see that good and true men are elected in every district.

The Princeton postoffice was entered by professional burglars one night this week and about $600 in stamps and $100 in money was taken. The safe was drilled into and the combination lock destroyed. Mr. Mitcheson is the postmaster upon whom the loss will fall.

Dr. G. E. Medley and S. C. Mercer, Jr., have exceeded all former scores in dove shooting, having bagged 333 in three afternoons of last week, spending only one hour each afternoon in the field. Mr. Mercer's numbers were 39, 39 and 45. Dr. Medley's were 36, 36 and 38. This is fine shooting if we are judges of the sport.

"Uncle" Joe Hight, of Stuart's district, who has one of the largest families in the county, was in the city Monday and took out a renewal of his news policy with the KENTUCKIAN. He is the father of eleven children and his immediate descendants number eighty grand-children and seven great-grand-children. He is hale and hearty and looks many years younger than he really is.

Geo. Wilson's Minstrels filled the Opera House last night and gave a performance that pleased all admirers of negro minstrelsy. Geo. Wilson, Lew Benedict and others in the troupe are old favorites here and they drew like a porous plaster. The company has just started out and all of the costumes are bright and new, and the performance throughout is meritorious and entertaining.

Judge J. E. Kelly has appointed Mr. H. B. Wilkinson to succeed the late Mr. G. J. Shoemaker as Jailer. There is some question whether the present County Judge has authority to appoint a successor for a longer time than the unexpired term of Mr. Shoemaker, which would have expired Sept. 1, 1890. It is a question upon which we learn our attorneys are divided. There may be a contest should Judge Bingham make an appointment when he qualifies.—Cadiz Telephone.

Nora G. a Winner.

Dr. B. S. Wood's swift little trotter, Nora G., won first money in the 2:30 trot at Bowling Green Wednesday, lowering her record to 2:28. She won in straight heats in a full field. Nora G. is also entered in the free for all trot, which will be the event of the fair.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

Criminal Cases—Petit Juries For First Two Weeks, Etc.

The September term of Circuit Court convened Monday. The docket is a pretty full one. The following cases were disposed of during the first three days:

Zach Stegar, Henry Worsham and Jno. Cowan, gaming, dismissed.

Ed Tucker, retailing, dismissed.

Eleven cases were filed away with leave to re-instate.

Thirty-nine cases continued and bench warrants issued.

Walter Whitlock, carrying a concealed deadly weapon, submitted his case to the court and was fined $25 and costs and given ten days in jail.

W. A. M. Brewer, retailing, fined $20 and costs.

William Brandon, hog stealing, dismissed.

Chas. Driver and Mack Perkins, selling liquor to minor, fined $50 and costs, each, in two cases. Reasons for new trial filed.

Ira Hill and Willis Wood, gaming, former fined $10 and costs, case of latter continued.

Henry Kraver and Lee Harris, giving liquor to minor, submitted to the court and fine of $50 and costs assessed against each.

Same, selling liquor to minor, trial by jury and verdict of guilty rendered, each party fined $50 and costs.

C. R. Clark, selling liquor to minor, two old cases, acquitted as to first case and fined $50 and costs in second. Reasons for new trial filed.

Geo. Diuguid, gaming, continued.

Jim Hardy and Green Chestham, gaming, failed to answer, fine of $10 and costs, each, assessed.

Jno. Radford, Jno. Black and Jno. Cheney, same, same.

Nolen & Pool, selling liquor to minor, fined $50 and costs, each.

Henry Poindester, injuring stock, plea of guilty entered and on submission of case to the court, he was fined $20 and costs.

Fount Henderson, gaming, fined $10.

Warner Glass, suffering gaming, fined $200. Failing to satisfy the claim he was sent to the work house.

The most important case disposed of was that of Walker Mason, charged with grand larceny. He was given one year in the penitentiary. About six years ago Mason, when only 13 years of age, took a fine shot-gun from Mr. A. J. Burchett, who lives a few miles east of the city, and wandering off to the Church Hill neighborhood, sold the gun to Mr. George Harrison for $15. Mr. Burchett some months later recovered his gun, and about one year ago had Mason arrested and placed under bond for his appearance. Mason claims that he was drunk when he took the gun, having drunk during the day three gallons of hard cider, and does not remember anything that happened for several days after the theft was committed. The jury failed to understand the case that way and convicted him, however.

Larkin T. Brasher, having resigned as Examiner for the County Mr. John C. Brasher was appointed in his stead. Hugh McKee was also appointed Examiner.

Judge Winfree filed his report of fines collected since last report, amounting to $133.10.

Maj. J. W. Breathitt also filed his report of taxes on deeds, seals, etc., from 30 May '90 to 30 Aug. '90, amounting to $1,095.35, which was ordered paid to the State Auditor, after a sufficiency for jury fund had been deducted.

The following is a list of the petit juries for the first two weeks of Court:

Jno. W. Tucker, W. T. Hopper, D. C. Ralston, W. J. Fowler, Henry M. West, Wm. Franklin, col. Alex. Fritz, W. F. Pyle, W. L. Scates, W. L. Gibson, T. B. Cansler, A. H. Wallace, T. G. Hanberry, J. N. Cox, William Johnson, B. R. Yancey, F. R. Dryer, J. H. Bishop, T. J. Haddock, H. E. King, Jas. Allensworth, col. T. L. Long, W. T. Davis, and J. W. Davis.

DEATHS.

An aged Asylum patient died Tuesday.

Mrs. W. G. Gooch died at her home on North Main Tuesday night, of congestion of the brain. Deceased was formerly Miss Julia McGlynn, of McEwen Station, Tenn., and had only been married about a year. She leaves an infant daughter. The remains were taken back to the home of her parents where they were interred yesterday. Mr. Gooch has the sympathies of the community in his affliction.

Colored.

Infant of Luther Dandridge, in the city Tuesday.

An 18-months-old child died on the premises of Mr. Pat. Major, near Beverly, Tuesday, of brain fever.

Electing Committeemen.

Each voting precinct in the county will elect a Democratic Committeeman to-morrow at 2 p. m. For this purpose mass meetings will be held at the respective voting places. There are 27 precincts in Christian county and 27 good and true Democrats who have the good of the party at heart should be chosen to compose the County Committee. The party organization should be stronger and better than ever and in no sense relaxed because the local campaign has closed for 1890. There were weak places in the ranks this year and but for this fact the late victory would have been complete and even more overwhelming. Let us, Democrats, see that no such mistakes occur in the future.

THE H. & C. ROAD.

Its Proposition Anxiously and Impatiently Awaited.

The suggestions of the KENTUCKIAN Tuesday in regard to the H. & C. Railroad are meeting with much favor and if the company will only prepare and submit a reasonable proposition the people will be found ready to help the enterprise. Judge Landis is President of the new company and being also attorney for the O. V., he is not in a position to push the new and better proposition as long as there is any hope for the O. V. This road now promises to do something within a week or two, but the chances are that it is the same old promise that is being made to do duty for the hundredth time. The KENTUCKIAN will not put much faith in the ability or inclination of the O. V. to come to Hopkinsville until it makes a move that looks more like business than anything we have yet seen. The better plan is to go ahead and build our own road and not wait upon the slow and uncertain movements of a paper road. We were told that if the O. V. lost the Christian county bond case in the Court of Appeals another proposition would be submitted at once, but after eight months' delay we are still put off with promises and the proposition is still withheld. Is it any wonder that the people are getting tired fooling with the O. V.? Let us have the H. & C. proposition and have it quick.

The Contest Monday.

The Cowan-Prowse contest will be called next Monday, but nothing further than to organize the Board can be done. The work of taking depositions is far from complete and there is probably another month's work in this direction. Mr. Cowan has his case well in hand and his prospects for ultimate success are very flattering. On the other hand few of the votes challenged by his adversary can be thrown out, unless the permit voters are thrown out, in which event fully as many Prowse votes would be lost. The "unregistered" list in Prowse's answer embraced 61 names, and very nearly all of these have been found registered and legal voters. Errors in spelling and in initials were the pretexts upon which most of them were challenged. Other classes of Cowan's challenged votes also show up clear and legal without the loss of a vote. It is becoming more evident as the contest progresses that Cowan received a good majority of the legal votes.

LONGVIEW.

LONGVIEW, Ky., Sept. 1.—Mrs. Hollis, of Pembroke returned home today after a short visit to her sister, Mrs. A. L. Carter. She was accompanied by Miss Annie Carter.

Mr. Jas. Huggins' mother, Mrs. Ferguson, is spending the summer with his family.

Miss Price Garrett, from Casky, is the guest of Miss Pattie and Lucy Garrett. Miss Fairmine Shanklin spent Saturday and Sunday with them.

Miss Riggins, of New Providence, Tenn., is visiting friends and relatives in this neighborhood.

Miss Mary Radford, an attractive young lady from Owensboro, is visiting Miss Edna O'Neal.

Miss Minnie Mason visited Miss Lula Carter last week.

Tom Adams has rented the "Johnson" place for the coming year and is now making preparations for a large wheat crop.

Miss Laura Haney is recovering from a severe attack of fever.

Mr. W. B. Mason is sojourning at Dawson.

A large crowd attended the "moonlight" Friday evening at Mr. Huggins' given to Misses Fannie and Lula Carter. The yard was beautifully illuminated and the fair hostesses did all that could be done to make the evening pleasant and enjoyable. Gentlemen's sashes were in vogue, especially red calico ones.

Among those present were: Miss Ella Riggins, Susie Haney, Otis Wood, Pearl Cayce, Emma and Ora Gregory, Mattie and Birdie Compton, Edna and Kate Cherry, Mary Blaine, Minnie Stegar, Mary and Bessie Kenner, Marie Clardy, Edna Radford, Minnie Mason, Annie Carter, Mary Radford, Pattie, Lucy and Price Garrett, Minnie Brounough, Lou Boyd, Fannie Leavell, Buckner Lander, Miss Nuckles, Mary Henry, Florence Rives, Miss Corbin, Fannie and Lula Carter.

The gentlemen were Messrs. H. McGehee, C. and J. Settle, Wm. Bro-nough, H. Bolinger, C. Garrett, W. L. and F. F. Clardy, E. Radford, L. and H. Thomas, Jim Gary, H. Shanklin, C. Johnston, L. Brame, J. Strobo, Geo. Mills, I. and C. Blaine, Preston Thomas, Jamie Garrett, C. Cayce, Bob and Jim Shelton, D. and L. Nelson, Roy Kenner, R. Major, N. West, E. Stegar, Mac Radford, J. Warfield, Frank and Geo. Rives, J. Garnett, Nuckles, C. Taylor, Will Forgy, Ed Murphy, R. and L. Leavell, C. Jenkins, Will Whites, Stephenson, Sam and Byrd Carter and George Stegar.

Dobbin.

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Does One Dollar" is true. These strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.
-Ninety-five per cent. of the inhabitants of New Zealand are professors of religion.
-Education in Peru is compulsory for both sexes, and free in the public schools.
The most diligent search for definite statistics is in vain.
-Six years ago Alabama appropriated only $130,000 directly from her treasury.
She now has a school fund of $200,000, and an annual appropriation of $251,000 for public schools, $3,500 for normal schools and $500 for teachers' institutes.
-A society for missionary work among the Norwegian Laplanders was formed in Norway in 1888. The Episcopal Recorder says that it has sent two itinerant preachers to visit the people in their huts and tents, and has begun publishing parts of the Bible and other books in their language.

-Africa now has at work within her borders 10 American, 12 British and 13 continental missionary societies. There are more than 700 ordained missionaries, and more than 7,000 native preachers. It is estimated that there are, both white and native, about 175,000 communicants and 800,000 adherents.
-In the Orange Free State the system of education is national, not compulsory nor free, except to poor children. In 1889 there were 49 Government schools, inclusive of the higher schools, with 2,139 pupils and 14 teachers. There is one good public library and small libraries in several villages. The State has only 4 papers.

-In religion, as well as in other matters, it is never wise to attempt to be too wise. What one can not know he had better not try to know. A quiet and uncomplaining contentment with the actual limitations of human knowledge, as fixed by God, is one of the marks of true wisdom, and indispensable to intellectual composure.
-Independent.

-The first six months of the present year the American Board has appointed 43 missionaries, 16 of them ordained, or to be ordained missionaries, one a business agent for Japan, and 25 women.
Of the 16 ordained ones, five are graduates of Yale Theological Seminary, four of Chicago, three of Oberlin, one of Andover, one of Hartford seminaries, and from other sources. Advance.

-According to a late cablegram from the Congregationalists of London are preparing to erect a "magnificent building" on the East Side to be used for the education of the poor. It is to be hoped that the statement is true and that the movement will be a success, for the "bitter cry" of East London has been a reproach to the Christianity of the great metropolis.

-The Old Catholic movement is standing gaining strength. It numbers today in Holland about thirty priests and about 8,000 adherents. In 1874 there were in Prussia twenty-seven congregations. In 1880 they had increased to thirty-five, with 16,000 souls. In Baden, there were in 1874 only twenty-eight congregations, now there are thirty-nine, with over 15,000 souls. It is estimated that there are about 40,000 Old Catholics in Germany. In Austria there has been a great deal of proselyting, but it is estimated that there are now 10,000 Old Catholics in that country. In Switzerland the different cantons vary in the number of congregations, but in the different districts there are about believed to be about 40,000 Old Catholics, with a clerical staff numbering fifty-seven priests.

WIT AND WISDOM.
-If our sins were only as unobtrusive as the goodness of others is obtrusive!

-A woman can be paid no higher compensation than to have her husband spend all his time with her.
-Even when a man weighs his words
he often finds they have no weight.

-Yonkers Statesman.
-Poverty is no disgrace to the industrious, but it is hardly a gilt-edge testimonial of ability.

-A wise man and a fool understand each other better than any two wise men.
-Fliegende Blätter.

-Women do have a good deal to say.
It is true, but before we are married we are generally willing to listen to them.
-The wisest are the most distrustful of their wisdom - with the exception of Prep. School Seniors. - Van Dorn's Magazine.

-The possessors of kodaks are not the only persons who depend upon others to develop their views. - Boston Transcript.

-We never do evil so thoroughly and heartily as when told to by an honest, but perverted because mistaken, conscience.

-The one who has suffered most from his own faults is the one who is best qualified to give a warning word to others. - West Shore.

-The preacher who hears down heaviness on our neighbors' failings is the one who will get the largest salary - Milwaukee Journal.

-The savings of each man are a difficult thing to get to all, and therefore, far, frugality is a thing which all may and ought to applaud.

-I do not wish to treat friendships lightly, but with roughness. When they are real, they are not glass things, and they are not the solidest thing we know. - Emerson.

-The peacock is blessed with beautiful plumage, and would be thought although lovely if he could keep his mouth shut and let the more musical birds do the talking. - N. O. Picayune.

-Never waste time telling people what a lot of good things you have believed in. In the first place, they won't believe you, and in the second place, they are waiting for a chance to tell you what a lot of good things they have done themselves. - Somerville Journal.

-Men who make themselves felt in the world are conscious of a certain feeling in their constitution which they know how to use. Few have overheard the words of surprise which must be lived to be understood. - George Eliot.

-When a hero burns his ships, scorns the council of cool, common sense, plucks the fowls safely from the nettle dangers and fear, work, but the solidest
thing we know. - Emerson.

USEFUL AND SUGGESTIVE.

-A spatula or palette knife is the best thing for scraping butter, paraffine, etc., from the sides of bowls or pots. It is not expensive, and soon saves its cost by preventing waste.

-To mend a very large hole in socks or woven underwear, tack a piece of strong net over the aperture and darn over it. Thus mended the garment will be stronger than when new, and look far better than when darned in the ordinary way.

-Gall Soap.-Take one pint of beef gall, cut into it two pounds of hard soap and add one pint of boiling water.
When cold cut in bars. This soap is excellent for delicate fabrics of uncertain colors, laces, silk stockings and underwear. - The Home.

-A strawberry cream is made by brushing a box of strawberries with a wooden spoon in a basin with six ounces of sugar, rub this through a clean hair sieve, add a pint of whipped cream and two ounces gelatine which has previously been dissolved in a little water; mix with the strained strawberries, put in mold and set on ice. - The Home.

-In restoring draperies or curtains of art needle-work on muslin, they should first be well-shaken in warm water, and then soaked in cold water to remove the worst of the dirt; they are then washed in tepid water with good white soap, rinsed through cold water with a little salt in it, and dried quickly in the shade. They should be hung before getting quite dry, and ironed lightly with a not too hot iron.

-Fasten one of the cheap, three-fold towel-racks securely to the kitchen wall near the stove and it will serve to hang your jelly-bag which should be provided with four loops of strong tape in place of the usual string. Slip the two loops opposite each other on the outer arms of the rack and the alternate ones on the middle arm. You will find it far more convenient than tying the bag to the backs or legs of chairs. - Good Housekeeping.

-White gowns grow yellow if left to hang uncovered. Make bags for them and for your silk, and veils as well.
Seal-shin retaining its beauty for a great length of time if kept in the dark free from dust. To make the most successful bags for these purposes use light calico, which has no fuzz and washes easily. Sew the breadths together, leaving the top and bottom open. Sew books and eyes on the bottom and run a shir string in the top. The gown should first be put on a wire arm, and the bag drawn over it and fastened at the bottom with the books and eyes; then draw the string over the arm, leaving the loop by which it is hung up uncovered. If the garment is white, or delicate in color, put a cake of white wax in the bag to prevent it turning yellow.

PATAGONIAN BIRDS.
Many of them indulge in exceedingly eccentric performances.

The black-faced bird of Patagonia, a bird nearly as large as a turkey, in-dules in a curious and performance, usually in the evening when feeding time is over. The birds of a flock, while winging their way to the roosting place, all at once seemed possessed with frenzy, simultaneously dashing downward with amazing violence, dashing about in the most eccentric manner, and when close to the surface rising again to repeat the action, all the while making the air palpitate for miles around with their shrill metallic notes. Other birds, also birds of other genera, have similar aerial performances.

The displays of most ducks known to me take the form of mock fights on the water, one exception is the handsome and conspicuous whistling widgen of La Plata, which has a pretty aerial performance. A dozen or twenty birds rise up until they appear like small specks in the sky and sometimes disappear from sight altogether, and at that great altitude they continue hovering in one spot, often for an hour or longer, alternately closing and separating, the fine, bright, whistling notes and flour-ishes of the black curiously harmonizing with the grave, measured notes of the female, and every time they close they slap one another on the wings so smartly that the sound can be distinctly heard, like applauding hand claps, even after the birds have ceased to be visible.

The rails, active, sprightly birds with powerful and varied voices, are great performers, but, owing to the nature of the ground they inhabit and to their shy, suspicious character, it is not easy to observe their antics. The finest of the Patagonian rails is the speckled, beautiful, active bird about the size of the fowl. A number of yperchias have their assembling place on a small area of smooth, level ground, just above the water, and hemmed in by dense rush beds.
First, one bird among the rushes emits a powerful cry, three repeated, and this is a note of invitation, quickly responded to by other birds from all sides as they hurriedly repair to the usual place. In a few moments they appear, to the number of a dozen or twenty, bursting from the rushes and running into the open space and instantly beginning the performance. This is a tremendous screaming concert. The screams they utter have a peculiar resonance, loud to the human voice exerted to its utmost pitch and expression of extreme terror, frenzy and despair. A long, piercing shriek, astonishing for its vehement and power, is succeeded by a lower note, as if in the first of the confused and well high exhausted itself; this double scream is repeated several times, and followed by other sounds, resembling, as they rise and fall, half-smothered cries of pain and moans of anguish. Suddenly the rushing whirly shrieks are renewed in all their power.
While screaming, the birds rush from side to side, as if possessed with madness, the wings spread and vibrating the long black wide wings exist in a constant whirl. This exhibition lasts three or four minutes, after which the assembly peacefully breaks up.

The singular waddled, wing-spread and long-tailed, jama has a remarkable performance, which seems specially designed to bring out the concealed beauty of the silky, greenish-gold wing quills. The birds go singly or in pairs, and a dozen or fifteen individuals may be found in a marshy place feeding within sight of one another. Occasionally, in response to a note of invitation, they all in a moment leave off feeding and fly to one spot, and forming a close cluster and emitting short, excited, rapidly-repeated notes, display their wings, like beautiful flags, grouped loosely together; some hold the wings up vertically and motionless, others half open and vibrating rapidly, while still others wave them up and down with a slow, measured motion. - Longman's
